Elden Ring Sote Edition

Sword-Lance of Gaius

Weapon (Heavy Lance), legendary (requires attunement by a creature with Strength 16 or higher)

Forged from the remembrance of Commander Gaius, the Boar-Rider General, this immense blade-lance channels the fury of an unstoppable charge and the crushing weight of his authority. Its edge seems to warp the air itself, as if momentum and gravity bend to its command.

This weapon counts as both a lance and a greatsword.

You gain the following properties by attuning to the weapon:

- You gain a +3 bonus to attack and damage rolls made with it.
- Boar's Rally. While mounted, you and your mount gain +10 feet of movement speed. In addition, if you are mounted when you use Boar's Momentum, the saving throw DC for the effect increases by 2.
- Indomitable Will. You have advantage on saving throws against being charmed or frightened.
- Boar's Momentum. Once per turn, if you move at least 20 feet straight toward a creature and hit it with this weapon, the target takes an extra 2d10 slashing damage plus 2d8 force damage. The target must succeed on a Strength saving throw (DC = 8 + your proficiency bonus + Strength modifier) or be knocked prone and pushed 10 feet away.
- Boar's Fury. When you score a natural 20 with this weapon, each creature of your choice within 15 feet must make a Wisdom saving throw (same DC) or be frightened until the end of your next turn. On a failed save, they also take 2d8 force damage.

- Gravity Rend. As an Attack action, you may slam the Sword-Lance into the ground, creating a wave of crushing gravity. Each creature of your choice within 20 feet must succeed on a Strength saving throw or take 4d10 force damage and be knocked prone, taking half as much damage on a success. After using this ability, the ground within 20 feet of you becomes gravitationally warped difficult terrain for enemies until the start of your next turn. You may use this feature once per long rest.
- Burden of Gravity. The Sword-Lance exerts an unnatural weight upon its wielder. At dawn, roll a d20. On a 1, you are afflicted with Gravitic Fatigue: your speed is halved until you finish a short or long rest.

"Those who have seen Gaius ride speak of the earth itself recoiling, not from fear, but reverence. His lance did not pierce flesh alone; it shattered will, bending even gravity to the command of his charge. When he fell, the ground did not still, it merely waited for another to bear his weight."
